14 December 2023

The above Order has now been made and comes into force today, 14 December 2023. The link to the newly launched regime page can be found here.

The Order extends, with modifications, the Iran (Sanctions) Regulations 2023 ("the Iran Regulations"), as amended from time to time. Persons who are, or have been, involved in the commission of serious human rights violations or abuses in Iran or involved in hostile activity against the United Kingdom and other countries are designated under this regime.

These Regulations establish a sanctions regime in relation to Iran for the purpose of encouraging the Government of Iran to comply with international human rights law and to respect human rights and to deter the Government of Iran or an armed group backed by the Government of Iran from conducting hostile activity against the United Kingdom and other countries. The Iran (Sanctions) (Human Rights) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 and the Iran (Sanctions) (Human Rights) (Overseas Territories) Order 2020 are now revoked and replaced by this legislation. Designated persons under this regime are subject to financial, immigration, director disqualification and shipping sanctions. There are also trade prohibitions related to restricted goods and technology. Contravention or circumvention of any of the prohibitions in the Iran Regulations is a criminal offence. The Iran Regulations also confer powers on specified maritime enforcement officers to stop and search ships in international and foreign waters for the purpose of enforcing specified trade sanctions and to seize goods found on board ships which are being, or have been, dealt with in contravention, or deemed contravention, of those prohibitions. This regime comes into force with 8 new designations and transfers 173 individuals from the Iran \(Human Rights\) Regime.
